H2 EQUITY PARTNERS ANNOUNCES INVESTMENT IN FFX

H2 Equity Partners is pleased to announce an investment in FFX Group Limited, the fastgrowing specialist online tools, accessories and technical fixings business serving construction and DIY sectors within the UK and Europe. FFX goes to market through 5 different channels, including FFX.co.uk, eBay, direct technical sales, wholesale/export and branches. FFX is one of the UK's largest independent suppliers of high-quality power tools, power tool accessories, fixings, hand tools and a selection of other related products.

H2 Equity Partners has become the largest shareholder in the business alongside existing management including Patrick Ker (Deputy Chairman), Chris Yates (CEO) and Mark Skinner (Operations Director) amongst others. The investment enables the exit of Foresight Group who acquired a significant stake in the business in 2015.

Initially founded as a traditional 'bricks and mortar' supplier at its Folkestone site, FFX launched its ecommerce channel in 2009 and has grown rapidly since then. The business provides excellent customer service and will continue to invest in strong product range and market leading delivery time. For further information on FFX please refer to https://www.ffx.co.uk/

Westbrooke Alternative Asset Management provided integrated finance to support the transaction. Squire Patton Boggs provided legal advice and Alantra provided corporate finance services to H2 Equity Partners.
